This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Books for Children

A LIST COMPILED BY
GERTRUDE WELD ARNOLD

The Marion Press
JAMAICA QUEENSBOROUGH NEW-YORK
1905

THE NEW YORK
PUBLIC LIBRARY
ASTOR, LENOX AND
TILDEN FOUNDATIONS.
1906

Copyright, 1905, by Gertrude Weld Arnold

Preface

This List is a selection of books for the home use of children from two to fourteen years of age. If some of those given for younger children appear somewhat advanced, it is because they have been chosen for reading to the child rather than for the child's own use. Many of the books for the older years are not usually classified as for children, but I believe that none has been included which is beyond the comprehension of the age under which it is grouped.

When an author has written many books of merit, the choice of a few has been made by Miss Helen Peters Dodd, the head of the Children's Department of the Newark Public Library. The List has been revised by Miss Clara W. Hunt, the head of the Children's Department of the Brooklyn Public Library, whose suggestions for addition and elimination have been adopted with very few exceptions. Her report on the List is stated in a letter which, by her permission, is here inserted.

MAY 13, 1904.

Dear Mrs. Arnold:

I have been over your list, and you will be surprised to see how few titles I have marked out. But the books are all so good there really is no reason for cutting them out just because the list is long.

It is a good thing to give variety and for people to have a good many to choose from.

There are no books there which have not some positive merit, so far as I know the books.

I have not made any marks on the picture books, which subject I must familiarize myself with, and the books for older children in your list are what we librarians class as "adults'." It is a matter of personal taste and opinion about what books to recommend for the "betweens age." Those on your list are certainly good.

I think the whole thing is excellent, and there is no need of having a sort of measured-out balance or proportion such as a business librarian might think of in apportioning public money. Your list is for private library use.

I shall be much interested in seeing it in print, and have enjoyed knowing about it.

Sincerely yours,

CLARA W. HUNT.

My thanks are due to the publishers, who, with one exception, have willingly provided facilities for examination of their publications.
